

Alliance Center for Education

William McDonald Chief Executive Officer

William McDonald joined the Alliance Center for Education as Chief Executive Officer in 2006 and immediately took a strong leadership role to guide the organization through a restructuring event that stabilized the organization's fiscal condition and expanded its quality programming. Under William's leadership Alliance Center for Education has become Charlotte's preferred provider of early childhood education, increased its visibility in the community and expanded its service footprint by nearly 50%.

William's experience prior to joining Alliance Center for Education included the roles CEO and President of the State Chapter of the National Kidney Foundation, State Director of the March of Dimes, and CEO and Executive Director for various YMCAs in the South Region plus two YMCAs in Texas.

A graduate of the University of Arkansas, Monticello, William holds BS and BSE degrees in Education and Exercise Physiology.

Learn more and connect with Mr. McDonald on his LinkedIn page.

About Alliance Center for Education

Alliance Center for Education, formerly Bethlehem Center of Charlotte, has been improving economic mobility for thousands of Mecklenburg County children since 1940. AC4Ed's mission is to provide high-quality education and support for children in need through partnership with their families. With its 5-star licensed Early Childhood centers serving children from birth through age five, and it's Out of School Time programming for kindergarten through 12th grade, AC4Ed serves more than 800 families daily. For more information, visit www.AC4Ed.org.